1.14 Technical Publications and Presentations

1.14.1 Approval Process

Division personnel who wish to submit technical papers or articles for publication, or make technical presentations such as at professional conferences, shall submit the material to their Technical Leader for review and approval. After the Technical Leader's approval, the author shall submit the material through channels to the Division Director (or their designee) for approval.

Speaking engagements or presentations that may have statewide policy implications must receive approval by the Division Director (or their designee) prior to the event.

1.14.2 Documentation Management

After all approvals have been given, a copy of the material, when published, shall be sent to the respective Technical Leader for uploading to the FSD Documentation Management System.
